

"NEW UZBEKISTAN - A NEW WORLD VIEW" youth festival was held in Nuristan, Nishan district, Kashkadarya region.

On June 26, Nuristan, Nishan district, was held a Youth Festival under the motto "New Uzbekistan - a new worldview" on the principle of "One intellectual man is a spiritual sponsor of one makhalla". Folklore, singing and dancing, KVN performances created by talented students were demonstrated at the event. The students also performed national songs to the delight of the audience.

As part of the festival, a mini-football tournament was held among young people in Nurchi, Kimyogar and Nuristan makhallas of Nuristan, Nishan district. About 30 young volunteers from the neighborhood also took part in the competition, competing in volleyball. In particular, the team "Talabalar" led by a teacher of physical education Elyor Quvvatov took an active part in the competition and won the first place. The winning teams for their active participation in the competition were awarded by the Nishan district administration.

The event was organized by the Karshi branch of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers in collaboration with the Nishan district administration and a number of other organizations. Deputy Hokim of Nishan district S.Khudoykulov and Deputy Director of the Karshi branch of TIAME D.Kuvvatov spoke at the event.

Information from Ilhom Ganiev, a teacher at the Department of Mathematics and Natural Sciences
Press service of TIAME