

An award to the student of the Bukhara branch of TIAME

Nozim Farmonov, a student of the Bukhara branch of TIAME, actively took part in the competition for innovative projects, organized as part of the Youth Festival, and won an honorable place in the competition "The best innovative project in the field of agriculture." Khokim of the region Botir Zaripov awarded him a certificate and a diploma worth 5 million soums.

Press service of TIAME