

Language is the mirror of the nation

On October 21, 2019 at 11:30 a literary and educational event was organized for students of the faculty "Organization and management of water resources" on the occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of the adoption of the Law of the Republic of Uzbekistan on the theme "My native language is my history, my destiny, my future" ". The event was attended by philologist Rakhimboy Dzhumaniyazov, dean of the faculty "Organization and management of water resources" R.Khakimov, deputy dean Zh.Turdiev, associate professor of the department of languages K. Rakhimova, as well as faculty and students. Participants spoke about the role of the Uzbek language in society, the need not only to preserve it, but to develop it. In a relaxed atmosphere, the speakers spoke of the importance of the national language as a universal value and history, without which no people can conceive. Then poems and songs were sounded in the state language. Students demonstrated their knowledge in the poetry of Navoi and Babur. We read the gazelles and rubayes of our great poets and writers.

Information of the Deputy Dean of OMWR Zh.Turdiev

Press Secretary of the institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov