

Secrets of Science

January 29, 2020 in the 6th Hall and G-315 auditorium for the 1st and 2nd year undergraduate students of the Master's Degree. The basic doctoral candidate Sirojiddin Keldiyarovich Eshmatov and the head of the department of magistracy A.A. Youngiyev held an event on "Secrets of stepping into science." S.Eshmatov spoke at the event with examples of achievements in science, secrets and stages of entering the science, foreign experience, leading specialists, hard work and constant research. A.Youngiev also told about the achievements and achievements in science in his career and said that undergraduates should focus on independent science and solving problems in science production. Master's questions answered in full.

Press secretary of the institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov