

Collaboration with schools

On January 27, 2021, a meeting with high school students was organized at the Yunusabad district secondary school No. 271 of Tashkent under the leadership of R.Khakimov, Dean of the Organization and Management of Water Economy Faculty, in cooperation with B.Sultanov, Head of the Economics Department, B.Shafkarov, Associate Professor of Management Department, J.Turdiyev, Deputy Dean for Youth Work and K.Nosurullayev, teacher of the Economics Department. Dean of the faculty R. Khakimov in detail told the pupils about the activities of the Institute, the faculties and directions of education, the conditions available at the Institute. In the course of cooperation, it was decided to organize special open lessons for pupils, provide methodical assistance to school teachers in organizing lessons, as well as organize visits of schoolchildren to the Institute to familiarize them with the activities of the Institute.