

Integration of science and industry

Leading specialist in the energy sector of the Salar aeration station at the "Tashkent City Water Supply" LLC (Toshkent Shahar Suv Taminoti), Malikov Umid Abdusattarovich held a training seminar for graduates of the Department of Automation and Control of Technological Process and Production. He provided information on the activities of the Salar aeration station, specializing in wastewater treatment. Students received answers to all questions.

Press service of TIAME