

Images of Patriotism

On April 26, 2019 at the Tashkent Tax College, on the initiative of the Department of "Special Sciences", the two great commanders of our country, Jaloliddin Manguberdi and Temur Malik, patronized the feeling of patriotism in the minds of the students, upbringing of national pride in the hearts of young people, love for the Motherland, respect for universal values, fidelity to humanism, as well as raising the spirit of respect for our nation, high level of spiritual enlightenment level. Rakhimboy Jumaniyozov, candidate of philological sciences, academician of the International Academy of Sciences "Ancient World" and "Turon" Academy of Sciences, assistant of the Department of Humanitarian Sciences of the faculty of MHW Muqimov Bakhriddin, also commented on the topic.

A senior teacher of "Special disciplines" department Saida Jumagaldieva and Mr.Rakhimboy thanked the staff of the department. Director of the college Firdavs Hasanovich Tillyaev wished the young tax collectors success in educational and educational process. At the same time, R. Jumaniyozov, after successful completion of the college's graduation, came to our institute and asked them to study in the Institute of Oriental Studies during their visits to the Institute of Oriental Studies. At the event, the former students of this college are now outstanding and talented students of our institute. He provided his exemplary advice and guidance on graduating students.

Report by B.Muqimov

R.Jumaniyozov, the press secretary of the institute