

In a roundtable talk

On May 3, 2019, in the new conference hall of the Institute, an expert of the Women's Committee of Uzbekistan, political scientist prof. J. T. Shermukhamedova held a roundtable discussion with the students of the institute. Jamila Shermukhamedova gave information about women's employment, raising their political activity, helping them to prepare for the family, not entering different streams, and giving our girls the right mentality. 'they say. The roundtable was conducted through an interactive method. Students and professors were very pleased with this roundtable. After that the students received positive answers to their questions.

Report by Z.Khafizova, the chairwoman of the Women Committe of the institute

R.Jumaniyozov, the press secretary of the institute