

Collaboration between TIAME and Volgograd State University

✘ On January 29, 2020, videoconference held with the participation of the professors of the departments of faculty "Energy Supply of Agriculture and Water resources" and the head of the Department of AM K. Astanakulov. The video conference held within the framework of the International Forum "Optimization of agricultural land use and export potential of agro-industrial complex of the Russian Federation on the basis of convergent technologies" on "Implementation of joint training programs for the training of engineering personnel."

Volgograd State University led by G.N Grishina, Head of International Relations, Dean of the Faculty of Engineering and Technology PhD I.A. Nesmiyanov, Dean of the Faculty of Electrical Power Engineering PhD V.V. Karpunin, Dean of the "Ecologic-reclamation" faculty, associate professor O.A. Kulagina and members of the departments.

During the meeting, the sides discussed issues of academic, scientific, bilateral training of teachers, as well as agreements on exchange programs for students, masters and doctoral students. Professors K.Astanakulov, A.Radjabov, R.Gazieva, associate professors A.Usmanov, A.Berdishev agreed to prepare a two-way road map with the consent of the parties on the considered issues.

The information by R.Gazieva, the faculty "Energy supply of agriculture and water resources"

Press Service of the Institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov