

Traditions “Mentor and student”

On November 29, 2019, in the evening, in the student dormitory No. 4, the faculty of the Department of Ecology and Water Management organized a round table “Traditions Mentor and Pupil”. In a conversation at a round table Assoc. A.Karimov gave students detailed information about great teachers. At the same time, he reminded students that it is necessary to love your profession, put your soul into it, have a deep knowledge of your specialty, know languages, and work should be interesting. During the round table, students told that they should eat, sleep and exercise regularly. 4-course student Sh. Korakhonov took an interest in drip irrigation technology. Students received satisfactory answers to their questions. The event was attended by teachers of the department S. Mamatov, A. Alimjonov, J. Mirzakobulov, A. Khamidov, B. Nasibov, R.Razzokov. The event held in an emotionally high spirits. Students expressed gratitude to the teachers of the department.
