

Memory is eternal, honor is sacred.

In any case, the foundation of history associated obvious today with the naming of the headquarters of the head of state as the White House searches in Uzbek statehood. After all, was there ever-greater humanity in the history of humankind than the Great Timurid State, built by our great grandfather? That is why the great political leader and politician, the First President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Islam Karimov chose the name of his residence. Independence allowed us to say the same to the whole world.
