

Innovation Week

Students of the 101 group “Mechanization of Water Management and Land Reclamation” faculty “Mechanization of irrigation and drainage” work took part in the Week of Innovative Ideas. Within the framework of the forum, were organized regional seminar the “International Innovation Fair”, the “International Innovation” , “Investment Forum”, the “International Robotics Championship – IRC”, and the “APCTT-ESCAP” .

During the week of innovative ideas, our students got acquainted with new technologies, programs and developments designed to improve agricultural machinery. The curator of the group S. Kholova acquainted the students with the work carried out at the institute and at the department, answered all students' questions of interest.

Press secretary of the institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov