

On the way of learning the Military-technical knowledge

The sense of love and preservation the Motherland begin with raise the sense of patriotism and self-defense in heart of the young generation. This requires them to develop political vigilance, moral qualities, psychological qualities, improvement of military-technical knowledge and the development of students' physical condition. In Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers such systematic works is being carried on. On October 30, 2014, the students of the faculty of "Hydroelementation and Hydroelectric Power Plant" studying at the Military Training Preparation Department organized practical training on Chirchik High Tank Command Engineering School. The classes were conducted by Chirchik High Tank Command Engineering School and the Military Chair of Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers professors and teachers who have many years of military service and life experience. During the lessons, the students were informed about the combat vehicles and tactical technical characteristics of combat vehicles and their combat capabilities. In addition, students explained with the function, structure, operation principles of the power unit aggregates of combat vehicles and automotive equipment, their location in combat machines and automotive equipment, removal of faults that may arise in the course of maintenance and exploitation, the mode of inspection of the level of fuel oil and coolant fluids in the engine servicing aggregates.

The trainers explain to the students the tactical and technical description and maintenance service of the T-72 tank

The trainers explain to the students the combat, tactical and technical description of the PJM (combat pedestrian)

The trainers explain to the students the function, structure, performance and maintenance of the T-72 tank's power equipment and the order of externally service.

Colonel R. Minlishev, head of the military department of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers

The press secretary of the Institute, Rakhimboy Jumaniyazov