

On International Day of Persons with Disabilities

International day of persons with disabilities is celebrated worldwide annually on December 3 in accordance with General Assembly resolution 47/3 of October 14, 1992. Its goal is to promote the rights of persons with disabilities in all spheres of public life, as well as to draw the attention of the public to the problems of persons with disabilities. On this day, the Assembly called on UN member states to carry out activities aimed at further integrating people with disabilities into society.

In this regard, Teshaboev Abduraufshoh from Kyrgyzstan visited student hostel No. 2 and held a round-table discussion on the theme "In the name of life". He noted that today it is very difficult to find a good specialist for any industry. Therefore, in order to realize yourself in life, to become successful, you need to be absolute professionals in their field. For this, you need to constantly work on yourself, learn, and gain knowledge every day in large quantities. At the end of the event, he sang songs of his own composition. The event attended by students of faculties of hydraulic engineering and energy supply of agriculture and water management.
