

Competition "Clothes that our grandmothers wore"

As we all know, clothing is the most accessible and easiest way to express a person's appearance, spiritual content, thinking and its internal content. With its help, each person can stand out from the crowd, transform, become more vivid and noticeable. Today, the culture of clothing in our country considered as a level of demand. Clothing contributes to both self-expression of the individual, and communication between individuals. In his preferences in clothes, a person expresses his attitude to himself and to others, characterizes himself as a person. Exactly appearance helps us to "read" individual qualities of a person. We all dress according to who we are or want to be.

December 4, 2019 at the TIAME on the initiative of vice-rector for Youth Affairs R. Choriev, chairperson of the Women's Committee Z. Hafizova, dean of the faculty of Land Management Sh.Narbayev, N.Kholikova competition held "Clothing that our grandmothers wore." The main goal of this competition is to increase youth interest in our spiritual values.

This, of course, will improve the attitude of our youth to the clothing culture and continue to preserve the Uzbek national values. During the event, students were described the history of national costumes of our mothers and grandmothers. National costumes testify to the rich cultural traditions of the Uzbek people, their rites and traditions, lifestyle and deep historical roots.
