

At the educational center

The state and mood of a person depends on his mental state. Theater in the same sense is a refreshing place. It is the source of spirituality and knowledge. About 300 students and teachers of the Institute visited the Uzbek State Musical and Drama Theater named after Mukimi. In the theater there was a concert on March 8 - International Women's Day - "The songs we missed". At the festive concert were shown scenes from various performances. In particular, songs and dances were performed in "Tokhir and Zuhra", "Lailey and Majnun", "Olifita", "Kaychi Kudalar". The actress of the theater - Gulasal Rakhmonova and the actor - Ilhom Atamirzaev lead the event. Actresses of Mukimi State Musical Theater of Uzbekistan - Masuda Otajonova, Zulfiya Umirova, Dilorom Abdualimova, Musallam Dadajonova, Surayo Yusupova; actors from the theater - Kobil Umirov, Omon Yuldashev, Altynbek Saparaliev and others played different roles. The performances of the actor, solo and vocalist Nurbek Mamatov received a round of applause.

It should be noted that the performance of Nurbek Mamatov impressed everyone by imitating the voice and performance of famous artists Soyib Khodjaev, Khamza Umarov, Vahid Kadyrov, Afzal Rafikov, Erkin Komilov, Jurakhon Sultanov, Ogabek Sobirov. At the end of the evening, Associate Professor of TIAME R.Jumaniyazov thanked the actors and actresses on behalf of the leadership and the team of the Institute and read poems to congratulate all women on the forthcoming March 8 - International Women's Day. We thank Muzaffarjon, the talented journalist and photographer, head of Muzaffar.uz site, for his services in filming and covering the event.
