

The first seminar on winter holiday

Obtaining and gaining a certain knowledge is a permanent benefit. The importance of seminars on this subject matters. In accordance with the letter of the Ministry of Higher and Secondary Special Education of the Republic of Uzbekistan , all the staff and professor-teachers have started to organize seminars on "Modern trends in the development of higher education: international experience and practice in Uzbekistan" during winter holidays.

At the seminar held on January 5 in our institute, attention was paid to key issues related to tax policy. Initially, Dadakhon Hodjaev, Acting Head of the Educational and Methodological Department of the Institute spoke. It is a model of innovation-institutional cooperation between higher education institutions, higher education, science and industry, developed by the Ministry of Higher and Secondary Special Education, normative documents, normative-legal base, number of higher education institutions and admissions quota, , Uzbek-Russian educational forum, international experience: innovative ecosystem development of higher education, development of professional skills of professors and teachers, the National rating system and its presentation program.

Then the chief accountant of our institute Ilhom Hasanov gave a widespread understanding of the monthly salary. Then the invited tax consultant was invited to the platform. Asror Valiyev, head of the Tax Administration Department of the Tax Committee of the Academy of Taxes of the Republic of Uzbekistan made a presentation on "Tax Service - a reliable partner of fair taxpayers".

They said they were paying off the wages of the citizens, and the 8% insurance premium was canceled. Then, the participants discussed in detail the changes in tax rates, income tax, property tax, land tax, taxation, taxation legislation, assistance to accounting entrepreneurial, electronic invoices, preparation and submission of reports. They clarified some issues by answering the questions of the institute staff as specialists in the field.
