

Belarus experience in research and commercialization of the results

Head of the department of TIIAME, Doctor of Technical Sciences Komil Dullievich Astanakulov visited the Republic of Belarus from November 18 to November 28, 2019 which organized by the Ministry of Innovative Development of the Republic of Uzbekistan in order to study best practices and establish communication with scientists of the Republic of Belarus.

During the visit, K. Astanakulov visited the National Academy of Sciences of Belarus, the State Committee for Science and Technology, research and higher educational institutions and acquainted with the expertise and monitoring of the implementation of scientific and technical projects, as well as the organization of commercialization of the results. He studied the experience of Belarus, increased qualifications and determined directions for further cooperation. At the end of the business trip, K. Astanakulov received a certificate from the Institute for the Training of Scientific Personnel of the National Academy of Sciences of Belarus on the internship of leading workers and specialists in the scientific field.

Head of the department "Agricultural Machines" K.D. Astanakulov