

A symbol of sophistication and elegance

Because of the joy and peace of mind of the souls, the symbol of elegance, delicacy, and beauty is associated with their name. On the occasion of March 8 - International Women's Day, these words and wishes sound proud. After all, the lineage of mothers, sisters, and daughters-in-law, which represents the racial closeness of our daughters, is a sign of our existence and existence. Their role in the family, in the neighborhood, in the educational institution, in the work community is of special importance. In these beautiful spring days that we all look forward to, on the eve of March 8 - International Women's Day, a grand spiritual event dedicated to this anniversary was organized at the Palace of Culture of TIAME. Along with beautiful students and female professors of our institute, teachers and talented students of Abdulla Qodiri Creative School, 527th and 142nd secondary schools of the capital, as well as Lashkarbegi, Hamid Olimjon, Darkhan, Mirzakalon Ismailiy, Asaka, Mustaqillik mahallas visited the event. This holiday is widely celebrated today not only in our country but in all corners of the world.

Early in the morning, the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers was welcomed by the Primary Organization of the Youth Union of our institute on the occasion of March 8 - International Women's Day. R.Choriev, Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs of the Institute, greeted all the women invited to the holiday with flowers and gifts. The video made for our women attracted the attention of all those present. Then the festive event began with the ringing of the circle.

The initiators of the event first invited the rector of our institute, Professor Uktam Pardaevich Umurzakov to the microphone to open the circle. Our rector sincerely congratulated all the sisters and lovely students on the holiday and wished them strength and success in their life and creative activities. In their congratulatory speeches, they expressed their sincere and best wishes to our esteemed women on this auspicious occasion, emphasizing that first of all we pay homage to the image of the holy and revered Mother, emphasizing the elegance and delicacy, fidelity and devotion of women. Their ingenuity and devotion have been the basis for the continuity and eternity of life on earth for centuries.

In particular, our guest artists are Honored Artist of the Republic of Uzbekistan, holder of the Order of Labor Turgun Beknazarov, Honored Artist of the Republic of Uzbekistan Alexander Bekchanov, Artist of the Republic of Uzbekistan Mehrikhonim Bekchanova, Honored Artist of the Republic of Uzbekistan Avazbek Olimov. The songs performed by the state award winner Lobar Umarova captivated all our women. There were also performances by our students. Not only our students, Artist of the Republic of Uzbekistan Odinakhanim Gozieva and actress of the State Musical Theater of Uzbekistan named after Muqimi Dilnoza Saidova's performance "Jaydari Kelin" inspired all our women. When great sages seek the most appropriate definition of the Homeland, it makes great sense to compare it to the image of the Mother. The most worthy person in the world to be called "holy" is the Mother. The favorite artists of our people, who visited this festive event, sang beautiful songs about our mothers and invited all our women to dance.

To all participants who have contributed to the high level of the event, in particular, Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs R.Choriev, Dean of the Faculty of Land Management Sh.Narbaev, Deputy Dean for Youth Affairs H.Eshova, faculty members Sarvar We express our gratitude to Abdurahmanov, Vakhobjon Ahmadaliev, Shukhrat Lakaev, actor Bozorbek Kholmuminov, stage director of the State Musical Theater of Uzbekistan named after Muqimi. Indeed, respect for women is a virtue that has risen to the highest level of value for our nation, our people. Because the more we honor women, the more we honor them as the light of our lives, the flower of our lives, which means that we honor our family and our Motherland. In the words of our President, the happiness of our women is the happiness of our people, our society.
