

Memory is sacred

Remembering the memory of servicemen and law enforcement officers who died during the Second World War and during the years of independence in honor of the Day of Memory and Honor in the secondary school No. 53 of Yunusabad district, which was celebrated on May 9, and won over fascism In order to celebrate the 74th anniversary of the victory, the school administration of 53 and the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers organized a joint event titled "Holocaust Happiness."

The event was attended by the deputy of the Yunusobod district of the National Revival Party of Uzbekistan Musaev Ulugbek Yuldashevich, the elders of the "Khusnobod" makhalla "Anorzor" makhallas, the teachers and students of the military department of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization, 53 - parents of schoolchildren and students. The event was opened by the director of the school № 53 Khudoyorova Firuza Mirkamilovna. Then the deputy Musaev Ulugbek Yuldashevich congratulated the participants on the holiday. The elders of the makhallas remembered the difficulties of the war era and their compatriots who overcame them.

Ergashev Heidar Ikramovich, senior lecturer of the Military Department, recalled the soldiers and law enforcement officers who died during the years of independence. The artistic part of the event included small performances reflecting World War II by schoolchildren, demonstration of a group of "Taekwondo" sports teens in the school, especially handicrafts by students of the military department . The demonstration of the exhibition was organized by all participants of the event.

R. Minlishev, Head of the Military Department of Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers

The press secretary of the Institute, Rakhimboy Jumaniyazov