

Johannes Holzner, professor at the Weinstein-Trizdorf University of Applied Sciences, Germany visited TIIAME.

Johannes Holzner, professor at the Weinstein-Trizdorf University of Applied Sciences, Germany visited TIIAME.

Johannes Holzner, professor at the Weinstein-Trizdorf University of Applied Sciences, Germany, visited TIIAME. The event attended by Vice-Rector for International Cooperation Professor Abdulkhakim Temirkhodjaevich Salokhiddinov and Head of the Department of International Cooperation Sh. Rakhmonov.

Professor Johannes Holzner provided information on the International Master's Course in Agricultural Management. The course program is implemented in 17 universities around the world. In particular, the master's program is being created in close cooperation with the universities of Germany, Uzbekistan, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Ukraine, Russia, Paraguay, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Cambodia, Mongolia, Poland, Romania, Serbia, and Thailand.

The program of the international master course "Agricultural Management" developed by the University of Applied Sciences Weihenstephan-Triesdorf (Germany) to prepare highly qualified specialist managers for agro-business. This course is among the top ten international study programs among German universities. This master's program has been operating for over 20 years. In particular, there is a master's program at Samarkand State University and Urgench State University. Professor Johannes Holzner also offered the opportunity to open a master's program at TIIAME. He offered to become one of the many network partners. The meeting was warm and friendly. At the end of the meeting, gifts presented.

TIIAME press service