

Students received detailed information on international cooperation

By the demand of 1000 active students of TIAME telegram page, has been organized an online meeting with A.Salokhiddinov, the Vice-Rector for International Cooperation. The students were interested about partner universities and organizations abroad, internships abroad, especially in Germany, studying at prestigious universities in developed countries. Prof. A.Salokhiddinov answered the questions in detail. Sh. Rakhmonov, the head of the international cooperation department provided information on the grants and joint projects, their submission which are announced nowadays. There was also a review of joint educational programs with TIAME.

During the meeting, it was agreed to organize a seminar training for students to prepare a resume (CV). The students received detailed answers to their questions and expressed thanked the organizers for the frank conversation.

Press service of the Institute