

The sacredness of the value

Ensuring execution of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan of April 23, 2019 "On Measures for the Day of Memory and Honor" and "Remembrance of the Ancestors - sacred value", "E" In order to take an active part in the events under the slogans "Care and care - human duty" visits to the homes of veterans' houses have been organized by the Department of Warfare, including: on May 7, 2019, the head of the military department was the former head of the department, Reserve Colonel Nurmukhamedov Bakhodir Khudayberganovich, on May 8, visited the home of the reserve lieutenant colonel Sokolsky Sergey Igorevich, a participant of the combat operations in Afghanistan, a former officer of the department, and carried out a number of work on renovating and renovating their homes and houses, they were informed of their situation, and they were given the institute and the military department as well as souvenirs and gifts. The heads of the veterans came to the sky and the joys of their faces appeared and they thanked the institute and the administration of the department for not forgetting the veterans as well as young people. They said they were always ready to share with the students and officers with as much experience as they could.

