

TIAME with you together Sardoba.

At a time when the leaders of some countries have isolated themselves due to the pandemic in the world today, the head of our state is raising his spirits together with the people in the difficult days that befell the people of Syrdarya. This situation has once again proved that the head of our state lives with the pain of the nation. In such a difficult situation, no matter how tragic the floods, the whole people of Uzbekistan are with the people of Syrdarya, the city of Tashkent and all regions send kindness to the victims of the flood, the caravans of humanitarian aid, the strength of ties between our people. gives A government commission has been set up to deal with the damage and floods in the Sardoba reservoir, and all measures are being taken to evacuate the population to safe areas and provide them with all possible assistance. All processes are under the control of the head of our state.

The team of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers under the leadership of the Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs, Head of the Department of Youth Affairs, Spirituality, and Enlightenment, to be with our compatriots affected by the flood in order to contribute to this good work, a working group consisting of sociologists from the Department of Humanities, as well as professors and doctoral students of the specialty 12 employees from Sardoba, Mirzaabad and Akaltin districts of Syrdarya region, were evacuated from Pakhtaabad Agricultural Vocational College and Secondary School No. 21 of Sardoba district, district №1 and №6 preschools and Manas village of Dustlik district of Jizzakh region met with residents of general secondary schools № 5 and №12 located in the meeting area and inquired about their condition.

On May 3-4, the working group conducted an interview on the basis of a questionnaire in order to comprehensively study the existing problems and problems of the population, and the results of the survey were entered into a database organized on a special Internet system. It became clear from the conversations that the confidence of the flood-affected population in the immediate response to the consequences of the natural disaster is strong. The people of Sardoba live on the promise of our President that they are in Syrdarya, "No leader will go anywhere under my leadership until the conditions are good." Dear brothers and sisters! The heart is with you! Sardobals, you are the descendants of a courageous people who have turned the birdless desert into a flowerbed, so we believe that you will stand on your feet again, make up for the losses and live your whole life!

Candidate of pedagogical sciences, associate professor Choriev Ruzimurat Kungratovich.

service

TIAMMI press