

"World of Books" and a sports complex are opened

Today, on September 7, at 10.00 am at Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers, two charity initiatives have demonstrated their results, focusing on the spiritual and physical needs of students and pedagogues. Initially, the opening of the "World of Books" store, the treasury of books was a spiritual gift for the institute's staff and students. Store consists of more than 3 thousand different types of scientific, literary publications, and books from various publishing houses.

Opening ceremony started with a speech of the rector of the institute Uktam Pardaevich Umurzakov, about the role of the book in human life. This initiative was also crucial for the implementation of the decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On comprehensive measures for the development of book publishing and distribution systems, book reading and reading culture".

Then the spiritual and educational complex "World of Books" was opened, and students were invited to the books store and shared with different books.

The second event was connected with the opening of a new sports complex. A sports complex consisting of sports, such as football, volleyball, running track, badminton, attracted the attention of everyone. In their congratulatory speech, the rector said that only young people with intellectual and physical strength will be involved in the future and future of a harmonious generation. Then they opened the sports complex and congratulated all the participants by cutting the red tape. Irrigator football team members were invited to the football field. The rector started the game by kicking the ball before both teams started to compete. Following the football match, then the volleyball competition started.

Both events, which are directly related to spiritual and physical development, are of particular importance in the life of the institute.
