

Shots from students' internship period

The internship of 2nd year students of the faculty "Hydromelioration" on the subject of Engineering Geodesy was organized across the regions, in Khorezm region state enterprise of land management and real estate cadastre and district branches. During the internship, the teacher of the department "Geodesy and Geoinformatics" O'.Islamov and the students share the necessary information and strengthen their knowledge and skills in the use of the latest innovations in the field, modern geodetic instruments and modern computer programs.

Press service of TIAME